DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election of Group I comprising polyaminoamide as the ultimate species in the reply filed on November 16, 2006 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).
2. Claims 14-18 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected group, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on November 16, 2006.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. Claims 1-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, last line, there is no express antecedent basis for "the wet strength resin formed".

In claim 3, "a vinylog addition or alkylation" is indefinite as to scope and meaning.

In claim 8, the format of the recited Markush group is indefinite.

In claim 9, it is unclear if or how an "unsaturated compound" can result in a polymer having "saturated" side-chain substituents.

In claim 10, the objectionable term "obtainable" is indefinite.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102/103

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 1, 2 and 4-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over U.S. 5,314,721 (Muller et al).

Muller et al disclose vinyl dispersions obtained by free radical polymerization of olefinically unsaturated monomers, reading on the presently claimed ethylenically unsaturated monomers, in the presence of a cationic polyamidoamine, which has been rendered hydrophobic, reading on the presently claimed cationic nitrogen-containing resin. The cationic polyamidoamine which has been rendered hydrophobic is obtained by rendering a basic polyamidoamine (A), reading on the presently claimed nitrogen-containing polymer, hydrophobic with monocarboxylic acids (B), reading on the presently claimed hydrophobic compound and subsequent quaternisation with monoepoxides (D), such as epichlorohydrin, reading on the presently claimed crosslinker.

The examples provide various formulations meeting the requirements of the present claims in terms of the types of materials added and method of preparation. The onus is shifted to applicants to establish that the subject matter of the present claims is not the same as or obvious from that set forth by the reference.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. Claims 3 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. 5,314,721 (Muller et al) described hereinabove.

As regards applicants' specific hydrophobic monomers, it is noted that the polyamidoamine of the reference can be alkylated with similar-such compounds, e.g., alkane sulphonates, acrylic compounds, etc. (column 4, lines 33-42, etc.). Accordingly, the use of the presently preferred hydrophobic monomers is within the scope of the reference and, as such, obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art.
